How To Verify Your Identity On A Video Call

WHY AM I SEEING THIS?

ID.me's primary identity verification process consists of several automated checks to protect against identity fraud. However, some people – through no fault of their own - can't get past these checks. There are a number of reasons people might run into issues, including:

- 1. ID document photo may be blurry or shadowed
- 2. Data sources like credit bureaus may have incorrect or outdated information
- 3. Credit may be nonexistent or frozen
- 4. Phone number may not be associated with your name

WHAT YOU'LL NEED:

Two primary IDs OR one primary and two secondary IDs For a list of valid documents, click here.

A smartphone or tablet to take photos

Ability to join a video call (computer with webcam or phone with camera)

If you're not ready, you can save your progress and return later.

Follow These Steps:

STEP 1

Get Started

If you see a button to verify your identity on a video call, click it to start the simple process of finishing your verification.

STEP 2

Confirm Information

Review your personal information to confirm it's accurate in case there was a typo in your previous entry.

STEP 3

Upload Documents

Follow the instructions to take pictures of your IDs. To see a list of valid IDs, click "What is a primary and secondary document?"

STEP 4

Take a Selfie

Follow the instructions to take and submit a photo of yourself.

STEP 5

Confirm You Have Documents

You'll see a wait time. If you exit, we'll email you once your documents have been reviewed. When you return, make sure you have your documents before clicking "Join Video Call Now."

STEP 6

Finish Up

Start the video call, show the Trusted Referee your documents, and answer a few questions. And that's it – your identity has been verified!
