Special Census Program

A basic enumeration of population, housing units, group quarters and transitory locations at the request and expense of the requesting governmental unit.

- Not a recount of the 2020 Census
- New enumeration that corresponds to the reference date of the new count
- Results incorporated into the next series of annual population estimates that the production schedule allows
- Conducted at the request and expense of requesting government
- Began accepting requesting for cost estimates – Match 31, 2023

If you have questions regarding a special census, please email us at dcmd.special.census@census.gov
