DIPA (New York)

DIPA, DOL, and the New York Department of Labor have established the New York State Department of Labor (DIPA) to help employers and workers.

What is DIPA?

DIPA is an outreach and engagement program that assists employers and employees in New York State with the requirements of the labor laws. DIPA provides assistance and guidance on a wide range of labor-related topics, including wage and hour laws, workplace safety, and workers' rights.

Who can participate in DIPA?

Any employer or employee in New York State can participate in DIPA. DIPA offers free and confidential assistance to help resolve labor-related issues.

How can I contact DIPA?

You can contact DIPA by calling (877) 466-9757 or by emailing dipa@labor.ny.gov. For more information, visit our website at www.labor.ny.gov.
