Covered Airport Workers are any persons employed to perform work at a covered airport location (including related locations) who work at least ½ of their weekly hours at a covered location, were employed as of 12/30/20 and work an average of 30 hours per week. Covered airport workers in the Hospitality Industry perform the following work: airline catering and airport lounge services. Salaried professionals, or executives and administrative staff whose weekly salary is more than 75 times the minimum wage rate, are not covered airport workers. Detailed descriptions are available at www.labor.ny.gov

Credits and Allowances

Tips – Your employer may use a limited amount of your tips to reduce your wages. This is called a tip credit. Your employer may take a tip credit only if your tips plus wages add up to at least the minimum wage. They must still pay at least the *wage rates shown above. The tip credit amount is the same for overtime hours.

Meals and lodging – Your employer may claim a limited amount of your wages for meals and lodging that they provide to you, as long as they do not charge you anything else. The rates and requirements are set forth in wage orders and summaries, which are available online.

Extra Pay you may be owed in addition to the minimum wage rates shown above:

- Overtime – You must be paid 1½ times your regular rate of pay (no less than amounts shown above) for weekly hours over 40.
- Call-in pay – If you go to work as scheduled and your employer sends you home early, you may be entitled to extra hours of pay at the minimum wage rate for that day.
- Spread of hours – If your workday lasts longer than ten hours, you may be entitled to extra daily pay. The daily rate is equal to one hour of pay at the minimum wage rate.
- Uniform maintenance – If you clean your own uniform, you may be entitled to additional weekly pay. The weekly rates are available online.
